

United Nations International Day of Peace

Free activities surrounding the United Nations International Day of Peace September 21st:

1. A Peace Festival at Eastown's Annual Street Fair on Saturday, Sept. 12, 9-8 p.m. where children of all ages can learn about the seven principles of peace through win-win activities.
2. Sunday, September 20, 1:00 p.m., a Gathering in St. Francis Garden on the front lawn of Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids Motherhouse at Marywood (East Fulton and Lakeside), sponsored by the Instruments of Hope. Followed from 2-3 p.m. by an Interfaith Peace Service, with representatives of different faiths addressing violence around the world, their experiences with violence, and how their faith and understanding help them move toward peace and forgiveness.
3. A Week of Peace Education by proclamation from the Grand Rapids Public Schools, Sept. 14-18 (its 31st consecutive year) in the public schools with a program guide from the UN IDP website containing age-appropriate activities for observing peace and celebrating people of different cultures.

The United Nations International Day of Peace was proclaimed by Mayor George Heartwell of Grand Rapids, Mich. to "commemorate and strengthen the ideals of peace both within and among all nations and peoples." The Institute for Global Education has planned several important community events to celebrate and observe peace here in Grand Rapids in connection with this international day of observances around the world.

The United Nations International Day of Peace events are sponsored by The Institute for Global Education, the Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids and the Instruments of Hope

www.instituteforglobaleducation.org • (616) 454-1642 • www.facebook.com/ige.coordinator

United Nations International Day of Peace

Free activities surrounding the United Nations International Day of Peace September 21st:

1. A Peace Festival at Eastown's Annual Street Fair on Saturday, Sept. 12, 9-8 p.m. where children of all ages can learn about the seven principles of peace through win-win activities.
2. Sunday, September 20, 1:00 p.m., a Gathering in St. Francis Garden on the front lawn of Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids Motherhouse at Marywood (East Fulton and Lakeside), sponsored by the Instruments of Hope. Followed from 2-3 p.m. by an Interfaith Peace Service, with representatives of different faiths addressing violence around the world, their experiences with violence, and how their faith and understanding help them move toward peace and forgiveness.
3. A Week of Peace Education by proclamation from the Grand Rapids Public Schools, Sept. 14-18 (its 31st consecutive year) in the public schools with a program guide from the UN IDP website containing age-appropriate activities for observing peace and celebrating people of different cultures.

The United Nations International Day of Peace was proclaimed by Mayor George Heartwell of Grand Rapids, Mich. to "commemorate and strengthen the ideals of peace both within and among all nations and peoples." The Institute for Global Education has planned several important community events to celebrate and observe peace here in Grand Rapids in connection with this international day of observances around the world.

The United Nations International Day of Peace events are sponsored by The Institute for Global Education, the Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids and the Instruments of Hope

www.instituteforglobaleducation.org • (616) 454-1642 • www.facebook.com/ige.coordinator

United Nations International Day of Peace

Free activities surrounding the United Nations International Day of Peace September 21st:

1. A Peace Festival at Eastown's Annual Street Fair on Saturday, Sept. 12, 9-8 p.m. where children of all ages can learn about the seven principles of peace through win-win activities.
2. Sunday, September 20, 1:00 p.m., a Gathering in St. Francis Garden on the front lawn of Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids Motherhouse at Marywood (East Fulton and Lakeside), sponsored by the Instruments of Hope. Followed from 2-3 p.m. by an Interfaith Peace Service, with representatives of different faiths addressing violence around the world, their experiences with violence, and how their faith and understanding help them move toward peace and forgiveness.
3. A Week of Peace Education by proclamation from the Grand Rapids Public Schools, Sept. 14-18 (its 31st consecutive year) in the public schools with a program guide from the UN IDP website containing age-appropriate activities for observing peace and celebrating people of different cultures.

The United Nations International Day of Peace was proclaimed by Mayor George Heartwell of Grand Rapids, Mich. to "commemorate and strengthen the ideals of peace both within and among all nations and peoples." The Institute for Global Education has planned several important community events to celebrate and observe peace here in Grand Rapids in connection with this international day of observances around the world.

The United Nations International Day of Peace events are sponsored by The Institute for Global Education, the Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids and the Instruments of Hope

www.instituteforglobaleducation.org • (616) 454-1642 • www.facebook.com/ige.coordinator

United Nations International Day of Peace

Free activities surrounding the United Nations International Day of Peace September 21st:

1. A Peace Festival at Eastown's Annual Street Fair on Saturday, Sept. 12, 9-8 p.m. where children of all ages can learn about the seven principles of peace through win-win activities.
2. Sunday, September 20, 1:00 p.m., a Gathering in St. Francis Garden on the front lawn of Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids Motherhouse at Marywood (East Fulton and Lakeside), sponsored by the Instruments of Hope. Followed from 2-3 p.m. by an Interfaith Peace Service, with representatives of different faiths addressing violence around the world, their experiences with violence, and how their faith and understanding help them move toward peace and forgiveness.
3. A Week of Peace Education by proclamation from the Grand Rapids Public Schools, Sept. 14-18 (its 31st consecutive year) in the public schools with a program guide from the UN IDP website containing age-appropriate activities for observing peace and celebrating people of different cultures.

The United Nations International Day of Peace was proclaimed by Mayor George Heartwell of Grand Rapids, Mich. to "commemorate and strengthen the ideals of peace both within and among all nations and peoples." The Institute for Global Education has planned several important community events to celebrate and observe peace here in Grand Rapids in connection with this international day of observances around the world.

The United Nations International Day of Peace events are sponsored by The Institute for Global Education, the Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids and the Instruments of Hope

www.instituteforglobaleducation.org • (616) 454-1642 • www.facebook.com/ige.coordinator

United Nations International Day of Peace

Free activities surrounding the United Nations International Day of Peace September 21st:

1. A Peace Festival at Eastown's Annual Street Fair on Saturday, Sept. 12, 9-8 p.m. where children of all ages can learn about the seven principles of peace through win-win activities.

2. Sunday, September 20, 1:00 p.m., a Gathering in St. Francis Garden on the front lawn of Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids Motherhouse at Marywood (East Fulton and Lakeside), sponsored by the Instruments of Hope. Followed from 2-3 p.m. by an Interfaith Peace Service, with representatives of different faiths addressing violence around the world, their experiences with violence, and how their faith and understanding help them move toward peace and forgiveness.

3. A Week of Peace Education by proclamation from the Grand Rapids Public Schools, Sept. 14-18 (its 31st consecutive year) in the public schools with a program guide from the UN IDP website containing age-appropriate activities for observing peace and celebrating people of different cultures.

The United Nations International Day of Peace was proclaimed by Mayor George Heartwell of Grand Rapids, Mich. to "commemorate and strengthen the ideals of peace both within and among all nations and peoples." The Institute for Global Education has planned several important community events to celebrate and observe peace here in Grand Rapids in connection with this international day of observances around the world.

The United Nations International Day of Peace events are sponsored by The Institute for Global Education, the Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids and the Instruments of Hope

www.instituteforglobaleducation.org • (616) 454-1642 • www.facebook.com/ige.coordinator